

Pastor John Eckrote and wife Amy joined ECB in January, 2005. The Eckrote family currently consists of two children, with number three due in January. In nine years of ministry, Pastor John has had the privilege of serving in several roles, including youth pastor, worship leader, home group leader, preacher, and teacher.

Currently, Pastor John provides oversight of Adult Discipleship Classes, Small Groups, and the worship and technology teams.

Sam & Pat Sarvis have been serving with Youth With A Mission (YWAM) in Thailand since 1981, and have three grown children. They served many years in Cambodian refugee camps and in the slums of Bangkok.

Currently, Sam is the National Director of YWAM Thailand, and together Sam & Pat help provide leadership for the nearly 50 ministries in YWAM Thailand. Pat also teaches at the International Community School in Bangkok. Sam is currently serving as the Head Elder at ECB.

Sam and Pat have been a part of ECB for 17 years, and have served in teaching Sunday School, worship leading, Governing Board and Elder.

Dr. Fredrick Christopher and his family have been attending ECB for the past ten years. In the past, he served ECB as a Governing Board member and now serving as an Elder in ECB. He and his wife Unaicy are leading a prayer group where around 35 people gather once in a month having fellowship with one another.

Christopher says, "I am humbled and excited by the opportunity to participate in the Search Committee as we together seek the leading of the Holy Spirit to discover the person God has prepared and chosen to lead ECB congregation in the years ahead. Please keep us continuously covered with your prayers as we seek His will." Proverbs 3:5-6 comes to mind: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him and he will make your paths straight."

Naomi has been attending ECB for the past 2 and a half years. For the past 2 years she has been involved as a youth leader, and more recently a member of ECB's missions Committee and a home group leader.

Naomi says: "I am honoured to be asked to be a part of this search committee in discovering God's direction for ECB. It is a big responsibility but one that I cherish, as ECB really is my home away from home. Please pray for wisdom, direction and God's leading over the upcoming months"

Jenny is Thai-Chinese and was born and raised in a loving Christian family. Faith grew with the knowledge about the grace of God and salvation through family and church, and she finally decided to be baptized at age 12. She's blessed with a close relationship with her mother, two older sisters and a younger brother. She also manages the family business in Bangkok. She is also serving in the worship team ministry as a pianist and a singer.

She regularly attends women's meetings at ECB and has used her gifts to serve in developing the church's website. She serves as a Deacon and in the women's ministry as a public relations woman for website and publications. Jenny humbly yields to God's calling to serve at ECB and desires to see ECB growing in its blessing where everyone is connected, to grow together as a body of Christ, and to reach out to the community and beyond for the glory of God.

Carol Strong and her husband, Steve, have been missionaries with the Christian and Missionary Alliance (CMA) in Thailand since 1993. Steve is the Field Director for the Siam Mission and Carol has been affirmed by the congregation and is the representative from the Siam Mission on the Deacon Board. They have three sons who attend Dalat International School in Penang, Malaysia. Carol previously served on ECB's Governing Board.

The Strongs consider ECB to be their home church and count it a joy to be able to participate in the life and growth of the church.

David Lowey and wife Colette have also been longtime members of ECB. In the past, David has served on the Governing Board. Currently, David serves ECB as a worship team leader as well as an Elder in ECB.

Outside of church, he serves as a middle school teacher at the International Community School (ICS), Bang Na.

He and his wife enjoy spending time with their children, grandchildren, and friends still living in Canada.

Komsan Chetchotisak and his wife, Eva, have been attending ECB since 2005. The couple has a two year-old daughter. Komsan came to Christ while he studied at the United States 7 years ago and has grown spiritually since. He now lives in Thailand and considers ECB as his home church. During the past year, Komsan and Eva have hosted home group and Eva is currently serving as a Deacon.

He says, "I am excited to be part of the Search Committee and to look for a new senior pastor who will lead the church congregation in the future. I believe that God, in His will, has already prepared and blessed the Search Committee, and I therefore would like to ask everyone to pray for the Committee during the process. "
