

A high-speed photograph of a water splash, showing a long, thin, curved line of water droplets and bubbles against a light blue background. The splash is centered horizontally and extends across most of the width of the image. The droplets are of various sizes and are captured in mid-air, creating a sense of motion and fluidity. The background is a soft, light blue gradient, which makes the white and clear water droplets stand out prominently.

King David and Goliath #1

1 Samuel 17: 41-51

Meanwhile, the Philistine, with his bearer in front of him, kept coming closer to David. He looked David over and saw that he was only a boy, ruddy and handsome, and he despised him. He said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. “Come here”, he said, “and I’ll give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!”

King David and Goliath #1

1 Samuel 17: 41-51

David said to the Philistine, “ You come against me with the sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the Lord Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defiled. This day the Lord will hand you over to me, and I’ll strike you down and cut off your head. Today I will give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel. All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword or spear that the Lord saves: for the battle is the Lord’s, and he will give all of you into our hands.”

King David and Goliath #1

1 Samuel 17: 41-51

As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle-line to meet him. Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground.

King David and Goliath #1

1 Samuel 17: 41-51

So David Triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him. David ran and stood over him. He took hold of the Philistine's sword and drew it from the scabbard. After he killed him, he cut off his head with the sword.

King David and Goliath #2

2 Samuel 11: 1-5

In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, David sent Joab out with the king's men and the whole Israelite army. They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem. One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful, and David sent someone to find out about her.

King David and Goliath #2

2 Samuel 11: 1-5

Then man said,
“Isn’t this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam
and the wife of Uriah the Hittite?”

Then David sent messengers to get her.
She came to him, and he slept with her.
(She had purified herself from her uncleanness.) Then she went back home.
The woman conceived and sent word to David,saying, “I am pregnant.”

Point #1

The Sin of Adultery

Ephesians 2:1-3

As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins, in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient. All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our sinful nature and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest we were by nature objects of wrath.

Point #2

The Devastation of Adultery

1 Cor. 6:18

Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body.

*For thou art
lighten my darkness.
I leaped over a wall.
I tried: he is a buckler to all them that God, save the Lamb? and who is a ro
and power; and he t'maked*

1 Cor. 6:20

You were bought at a price.
Therefore honor God with your body.

*For thou art my
lighten my darkness.
For by thee I have
I leaped over a wall.
I tried: he is a buckler to all them that is God, save the Lord? and who is a ro
and power; and he t'maked*

Malachi 2:13-16

Another thing you do: you flood the Lord's altar with tears. You weep and wail because he no longer pays attention to your offerings or accepts them with pleasure from your hands. You ask, "Why?" It is because the Lord is acting as the witness between you and the wife of your youth, because you have broken faith with her, though she is your partner, the wife of your marriage covenant.

Malachi 2:13-16

Has not the Lord made them one? In flesh and spirit they are his. And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring. So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith with the wife of your youth. “I hate divorce,” says the Lord God of Israel, “and I hate a man’s covering himself with violence as well as with his garment,” says the Lord Almighty. So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith.

God's Love

Psalm 51: 1-12

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions. Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that your are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge. Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. Surely you desire truth in the inner parts. You teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness; Let the bones you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.
